

Aon Hewitt Investment Consulting recognise that equity investors have rights and responsibilities as share owners. We support the Stewardship Code as a helpful framework for the ownership activities of equity investors. We encourage our clients to support the Code, and to carefully consider the implications and challenges it presents both for them and also for their delegated agents, the investment managers.