Subject: ASB Consultation 'the future of UK GAAP'

Dear Sirs

I would recommend that the ASB develop a not-for-profit standard that can pave the way for IAS Not-for-profit standard. Many charities in the UK working in the area of relief and development have an international presence and structures (similar to multi-nationals), thus face many issues in the consolidation for group financial statements purposes with any countries operating various GAAP's and have similar transparency, accountability requirements as corporate sector multi-nationals.

The current SORP 2005 should be utilised as a starting point to cover all aspects of narrative and accounting aspects impacting charities such as fund accounting.

Regards
 Javed
