

Director of Planning & Resources

The Financial Reporting Council is the UK's independent regulator for corporate reporting and governance. As a key member of the 'Executive' team this role will work alongside the CEO in planning and managing all of its resources to deliver the FRC's projects and activities. This is a very significant role at the heart of a small but high profile body in the UK business community.

London ♦ £ Six Figure Base + Benefits + Bonus

- ♦ Playing a key role in the preparation and implementation of the annual Plan & Budget;
- ♦ Developing and operating a risk management framework to support the FRC's Regulatory Strategy;
- ♦ Ensuring that the FRC has adequate resources and management processes;
- ♦ Leading and managing all of the operational support functions;
- ♦ Helping to manage relations with key external stakeholders in the UK and overseas.

We are seeking a highly astute and confident individual who is capable of dealing with complex issues easily and whose experience is supported by relevant professional qualifications. Ideally you should have wide-ranging experience across key functions including Planning, Finance, HR or IT gained in an equivalent body or blue chip commercial business. You will possess a strong analytical ability, excellent communications and relationship building skills as well as a proven track record in change/project-management.

The role offers great breadth and responsibility with the opportunity to establish a network of significant relationships in business and government and to be part of an ambitious senior management team.

If you are interested in finding out more detail about this opportunity and would like to receive an information pack about the FRC and the role please email your CV and a covering letter to our advising consultant matthewleedham@uk.michaelpage.com quoting reference 12803619. For more information about the FRC, please visit our website www.frc.org.uk.