

Executive Director Auditing Practices Board (APB)

£Significant Six Figure Salary & Benefits

The Auditing Practices Board (APB) is one of the operating bodies of the Financial Reporting Council, the UK's independent regulator for corporate governance and reporting. The APB is committed to leading the development of auditing practice in the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland with the scope of its work is becoming increasingly global.

Reporting to the Chairman of the APB and the FRC's Director of Auditing, you will have overall responsibility for shaping the direction of the Board's operations with particular focus on its role in 'thought leadership' in the development of international standards. In particular you will be responsible for:

- Developing and implementing the Board's strategy including new projects
- Promoting the Boards activities with external bodies
- Maintaining regular contact with major international standard setters
- Leading and managing a team of experienced Project Directors

We are seeking a candidate with deep experience and current knowledge in auditing and assurance. You should have exceptional communication skills both orally and in writing coupled with a strong intellect and leadership skills. You must have a track-record that will command respect from senior business people who are key stakeholders in both the UK and abroad. As such you are likely to be a qualified finance professional currently working in audit who has either:

- Worked at a senior level in the technical department of a large audit firm
- Been an engagement Partner on audits of large public interest entities.

Michael Page is handling this vacancy on behalf of the FRC. Interested applicants should apply in writing to Matthew Leedham, Michael Page Executive Search at matthewleedham@uk.michaelpage.com. Please quote reference: NXML/0000000.