Third Stakeholder Meeting on Choice in the UK Audit Market

The Financial Reporting Council (FRC) is to hold a stakeholder meeting to discuss actions to enhance the efficiency of the market for audit services to large companies and to reduce the risks associated with a firm leaving the market. The meeting takes place at the RSA, 8 John Adam Street, London on Thursday 10th May 2007 from 4pm to 6pm.

The meeting will consider the Interim Report of the FRC's Market Participants Group (MPG). This report, which will be published before the meeting, will set out for consultation the MPG's provisional recommendations. The meeting is intended to assist stakeholders to develop their responses to the consultation.

Those wishing to attend are asked to register in advance using the booking form attached or email. We will confirm your place at the meeting by email.
