Second Stakeholder meeting on Choice in the UK Audit Market

The Financial Reporting Council (FRC) is to hold a stakeholder meeting to discuss risks to the public interest arising from the market for audit services to large companies and how these risks could be mitigated. The meeting takes place at the Royal Institute of British Architects in London on Monday 18 September 2006 starting at 4pm.

The meeting will consider responses to the Discussion Paper that has been published by the FRC, 'Choice in the UK audit market'. This paper is available at <http://www.frc.org.uk/publications/pubs.cfm>. After the meeting, the FRC will publish a second discussion paper seeking views on options for mitigating those risks that are considered to be most significant.

As space at this meeting is limited, those wishing to attend are asked to register in advance using the booking form attached. We will confirm your place at the meeting by email.
