The Civil Service Muslim, Hindu and Jewish Networks are proud to invite you to an event to mark Interfaith Week and COP26. This will explore the environment, sustainability and our responsibility according to our scriptures. The event will be a panel discussion with each speaker talking for roughly 10 minutes before a Q&A session to end.

Speakers

Professor Odeh Jayyousi - an international expert on climate and sustainability, Professor Jayyousi has authored books and papers on the Islamic discourse on climate change. He is a consultant at several international forums & committees on the topic of SD and renewables. He will be sharing the Islamic Model he has developed on environmental stewardship

Rabbi Jonathan Wittenberg - was born in Glasgow to a German Jewish refugee family. After reading English at Cambridge and teacher training at Goldsmiths, he studied for the rabbinate at Leo Baeck College, London, and in Israel. He was appointed Senior Rabbi of the Assembly of Masorti Synagogues UK in 2008, is President of the Council of Christians and Jews, a member of the Council of Imams and Rabbis and a co-founder of Eco-Synagogue. He is deeply engaged in environmental issues and involved in supporting refugees. He teaches, writes and speaks widely, including on Radio 4's Prayer for the Day and Thought for the Day

Suresh KM Rajpura - Hindu Chaplain at Birmingham and Sandwell hospitals, delivers regular talks on Hindu Dharma on a range of topics. Suresh sits on the Hindu Education Forum in Birmingham and runs Bal Gokulam at Mata Da Mandir in Dudley. Suresh is actively involved in environmental issues.
