

Our mission is to promote transparency and integrity in business.

We regulate auditors, accountants and actuaries, and we set the UK's Corporate Governance and Stewardship Codes.

Why the FRC needs to hear from you!

Our work is aimed at investors and others who rely on company reports, audit and high-quality risk management.

So, knowing what investors want from company reporting, governance and audit is important to us.

What are we working on?

Some of our key areas of focus for 2018 are:

- The UK Corporate Governance Code
- The Stewardship Code
- Audit quality and audit firm monitoring
- The future of audit
- The future of company reporting

How can you get involved?

- Join our Investor Advisory Group
- Take part in roundtable discussions on hot topics
- Respond to our consultations
- Participate in a Financial Reporting Lab project
- Sign up to our mailing list

We have a wide-ranging programme of investor events, some of 2017's highlights include:

- Senior investor breakfast meetings with our CEO and Chairman in London, Edinburgh and New York
- More than 20 roundtable discussions to talk about key FRC projects and policies
- “Lifting the lid on the FRC” half-day conference for retail investors
- Regular investor updates on Brexit-related developments
